

...our fighting men are all slain
...all exhausted and we cannot
...now. This, my countrymen, is

"I desire, as our candidates have been chosen, to be free for all people, rich and poor, and, therefore, I tell you in all candor that I do not array our condition by the light of an authority, I see no danger which threatening to be fatal to our cause, except the depression of spirit among our people and the still general risk of internal dissension. It so is as we remain one and determined. So is the power of our enemies to building up except they abide in this able we can be saved." All things may be supplied if we be possessed of that bold and manly sense as symmetry of which liberty and justice are born. "What alone can fill the void?"

of the cotton and the dust of the plow and the sweat of the negro's brow were tangled together from the very beginning, and it was there but a step to the general and, even, the personal pollution of the land, and the three hundred million acres are all slain!
Four hundred thousand names yet stand the meter rolls of the Confederacy, to nothing of the many thousand who shrink it are they? Thousands upon thousands yet without grave are lying in the woods and swamps of the South. Are our prisoners dead? Hundreds of thousands of grain rot at the various depots of the South, for of transportation; and this transportation are not at the post of duty. Oh! my symptoms! If you would but rise to defend me, to drive them back to their country and — that our territory been overrun — and how much of it has been held by our enemy marched triumphantly through the

of our sister Georgia, and is she condred? Except for the Garrison at Savannah, the ashes of desolation on their track the interior, Georgia has neither cause for the sign of enemy on her soil. So of portions of the South, which space does become me to enumerate. For four years counties, regions have gnawed at the of Virginia, yet to-day they claim none all of her territory which is swept by their armies firmly stand upon, and the ridden by their fleets, are all they really or ever can hold, except by our ignoble to the balance of our titles for Mobile, Weston, Wilmington, Richmond, all—and are determined to be free, our subjugation be as distant as ever. For, thank God, confederacy does not consist in brick and or particular spots of ground, however this day, is in a military point of Our nationality exists in our solitude dwell in the hearts of her patriots, the rugged, beset-fort soldiers, standing depths of the forest, or in the shadow mountains, can offer her sacrifices which have not and are acceptable to them

[illegible]

to give every possible exterior to rebelliousness to the army, to divide of your own strength with the poor and the suffering, to strengthen the arms of your rulers, and to train your soldiers and their Generals, and to cheerfully you aid, physical, mental and moral, in whatever agency you may be, to the degradation of your country, and to the ruin of its people.

Given under my hand, and the Great Seal of the State, in our city of Raleigh, on the 14th day of February, A. D. 1865

Z. B. VANCE,
Governor.

M. McPHERSON, Priv. Sec.

MARRIED: At the residence of the bride's mother in this city on the evening of Feb. 16, 1865, by Rev. F. Johnston, Dr. P. S. SARGENT, Surgeon, G. C. GIBSON, Minister of the Gospel, and J. C. FAIR, eldest son of Dr. Sargent, deceased.

DEED:

Johnnie Evers, Y. Lawrence, aged 23 months and 13 days. He volunteered into his country in March, 1863, where he met his demise, (shortly thereafter),
and was buried at the same place, and seemed to have been killed while by the kind and tender devotion and nursing of his mother and family.
His County, on the 20th inst., John Henry son of William Henry Lawrence and Mary Ann Lawrence, and married at Nashville, on the 2nd inst., Elizabeth Ann Lawrence, daughter of James Lawrence and Mary Ann Lawrence, both of this State.

WANTED, in exchange for Confederates

HOUSE AND LOT IN WAUGHITOWN Recently owned by Billy Jenkins. On the house is a good quality stone, and all accessible to a good garden and orchard of fruit trees. The house is a fine one, and is a good one to live in.
The lot is a good one to live in.
The house is a good one to live in.
The lot is a good one to live in.
The house is a good one to live in.
The lot is a good one to live in.

[illegible]

STOLEN, on the night of the 2nd inst., a valuable in Davidson County, N. C.

tail darker than his body, a small white one of his eyes, and one of his hind hoofs white, which always had been so. He showed a small spout on his left about two years ago.
 and was taken on Saturday
 February 9, 1865.

THE BATTLE OF
 FORT PIERCE, ARIZONA.
 The following is a list of the names of the soldiers who were killed in the battle of Fort Pierce, Arizona, on the 10th of March, 1865.

THE first section of the 1st Arizona Cavalry, under the command of Address: Fort Pierce, March 10, 1865.
 and was taken on Saturday
 February 9, 1865.

Col. Wm. BINGHAM,
 Superintendent,
 Ocala, N.
 Arizona.

Furs, Furs Wanted
 I wish to purchase 50,000 RAB-BITSKINS, also a quantity of MINKS, WHITE OTTER, for which I will pay the highest Cash or exchange for furs. I still continue the importance of hats, and would be glad to exchange for goods of any kind of goods.
 THOS. J. BONE
 January 5, 1865.

BROKE JAIL.
$400 REWARD.
 On the night of the 19th inst. four prisoners committed to the Forsyth jail, escaped their care. Their names are as follows: WM. O.
 BERRY, WILLIAM, and LEO WALLACE.
 KNOWN FUGITIVES.
 They were from Yavapai County, placed in

In arresting deserters and for being parties in killing of two officers and ten years ago.

The above reward will be given for the apprehension of either or both:

M. M. STACY, Sheriff, Oregon County
Winston, Jan'y 20th, 1895

STAGE LINE

BETWEEN

Salem, N. C. and Wytheville, Va.

This line will run as before, leaving Salem on Tuesday and Thursday of each week half past 6 a. m., and leaving Wytheville at same times. There will be no stage on "weds" during the months of December-January-February. Good accommodations for passengers, especially to sick and wounded soldiers, and free transportation on their rounds.

LEWIS M. VEST & BRO.
Dec. 8--36-47 Stage Owners

ENROLLING OFFICER, FOREYGE CO.
Winston, N. C., Jan'y 31st, 1895

THE FOLLOWING CIRCULAR HAS BEEN received at this Office and is published the information of those concerned:

W. A. ALBRIGHT,
Lt. & R. O. for Foreyge Co.

SALMON, N. C., Jan. 24th, 1895

Circular No. 1

"The attention of all citizens in handling service is called to the following extract from General Order No. 100, Art. 1, Paragraph 1, General Orders, War Department, Washington, D. C., dated July 18, 1862:

ADJUTANT & INSPECTOR GENERAL

12. The provisions of the above articles shall be binding upon the members of the County, who shall be held responsible in person or through a representative of the County for the full amount of the sum of which will be embodied in the resolution of the Board of Supervisors.

[illegible]